Information Technology Policy Framework

In accordance with the Information Security policy, all users of VCU systems, data, information and technology resources must adhere to the policies, standards and baselines located within the Information Technology Policy Framework (https://ts.vcu.edu/askit/policies-and-publications/information-technology-policies-standards-baselines-guidelines/). The framework also includes guidelines as recommendations and best practices.